11 Trafalgar Terrace

A fantastic opportunity to acquire a period cottage in a unique Brighton setting, offering considerable potential for renovation and improvement.

Situated in Trafalgar Terrace, a pedestrian twitten tucked away from passing traffic, the property forms part of an attractive row of early 18th-century cottages, recognised for their colourful painted frontages and the established gardens opposite.

The property offers an exciting opportunity for someone looking to undertake a comprehensive programme of modernisation and create a home to their own specification. Retaining a number of period features, including timber flooring, a fireplace and traditional detailing, there is plenty of scope to restore and enhance the existing accommodation.

Outside, the property benefits from an enclosed garden with a paved seating area and established planting, providing a pleasant space to enjoy and further potential for landscaping.

Ideal for buyers seeking a renovation project, this is a rare opportunity to create a home in one of Brighton's distinctive historic settings.

Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the location and potential on offer.

Please note: The property requires comprehensive modernisation and refurbishment throughout.
