7a West Hill Place

Brighton, BN1 3RU

Price Guide £575,000

7a West Hill Place

Located within the highly sought-after West Hill Conservation Area, this attractive period home sits in one of Brighton's most desirable and well-connected neighbourhoods. Known for its charming architecture and quiet residential feel, the area is just moments from Brighton Station, making it ideal for commuters, while the city centre, Seven Dials and the seafront are all within easy walking distance. A range of independent cafés, local shops, green spaces and well-regarded schools are also close by.

This substantial and versatile terraced home is arranged over three floors, offering generous and flexible accommodation suited to modern living. Rarely available, the property further benefits from two private outdoor spaces, including a secluded rear garden and a first-floor balcony.

The ground floor features a bright entrance hall leading into a spacious lounge that spans the depth of the property, creating a comfortable and inviting living space. To the rear, a separate dining room flows into the kitchen, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. A conservatory opens directly onto the garden, enhancing natural light, while a ground floor W.C. adds practicality.

On the first floor are two well-proportioned double bedrooms. The principal bedroom sits to the front, while the second bedroom enjoys direct access to a private balcony. This level also includes a family bathroom and a separate W.C.

The top floor provides three further rooms, offering excellent flexibility for use as additional bedrooms, home offices or hobby spaces, making it ideal for growing families or those working from home.
